

COMMUNITY PICNIC

TO BE HELD JULY 4

Fireworks, Speeches, and Motion Pictures Will Be Parts of Program.

Washington will celebrate Independence Day by a community picnic followed by a display of fireworks and moving pictures on the Ellipse and Monument Grounds.

This was the program decided upon at a meeting of the safe and sane committee on the Fourth of July, in the office of Commissioner Newhall, chairman. Rock Creek and the Zoological Parks will be thrown open to the public at noon. Music will be furnished by three bands. Lunches of sandwiches, coffee, ice cream, cake, and other delicacies will be served under the direction of the committee, and the municipal authorities at low prices, so that families, unless they desire, need not provide their own refreshments. Care will be taken to see that the food furnished by the committee is of the best quality.

The program includes also a riding tournament to be held in Rock Creek Park. Valuable prizes that are expected to attract entries from near by States, as well as riders of Washington, will be offered.

Vehicles and horses not included in the official program will be excluded from the grounds.

Public addresses will be made from the several bandstands by prominent orators, and at each the Declaration of Independence will be read. The moving picture display on the Monument Grounds will begin at 3 p. m., and will be followed by the fireworks.

Beginning at 10 a. m., an athletic and swimming carnival will be held at the municipal swimming pool. Prizes will be awarded. The District being without funds for such purpose, the expenses of the celebration must be borne by popular subscription. E. B. Dean, a member of the committee, headed the list today with a contribution of $5. Subscriptions should be addressed to Edmund S. Wolfe, treasurer, Safe and Sane Committee, District National Bank.

Mrs. Tumulty Patroness Of Benefit at Baltimore

Mrs. Joseph Tumulty, wife of the Secretary to the President, heads the list of Washington patronesses attending the benefit performance of the Pull stock company at the Auditorium in Baltimore today.

The Pull performance is the first step to be taken by the Catholic societies of Washington and Baltimore, united, to encourage Catholic charities.

Among the patronesses are: Mrs. Ashburn, wife of the Senator from Arizona; Mrs. Don Juan Riano, wife of the Spanish ambassador to America; Viscountess Benoit d'Azay; Mrs. E. Allen; Mrs. Peter Hill; Misses Hill; Mrs. John Kiley; Misses Dyer, and Misses Jane Riggs, Alice Riggs, Mary Welch, Della Lydon and Margaret Curran. Congressman and Mrs. Eugene Kinkaid of New Jersey have taken a keen interest in the event and will attend the benefit.

Rockhill Is Adviser To China's President

PEKING, April 28.—William Wood-Rockhill, former American ambassador to Turkey, has accepted an engagement from President Yuan Shi Kai as adviser-at-large for the Chinese government at a salary reportedly to amount to $1,000 monthly.

He will return to the United States immediately and advise President Yuan Shi Kai from there.

Three May Succeed to Places Held by Baer

PHILADELPHIA, April 28.—The directors of the Reading Company will meet here on Thursday to take action on the death of George F. Baer, former president. It is not improbable that one man will be chosen president of the Philadelphia and Reading railroad, another as chief executive of the coal mining interests of the system, and a third as president of the Reading Company, the holding corporation. It is expected that this action will be taken because of the difficulty of finding a man to fill all of the positions Baer held.

MOTHERS' CONGRESS WARS ON POLYGAMY

Welfare Association Adjourns Intent on Having Lawmakers Forbid Plurality of Wives.

After taking a decided stand against polygamy and in support of uniform marriage and divorce laws and modest dress of school children the third International Congress on the Welfare of the Child was closed last night at the Raleigh. Since Wednesday members of the National Congress of Mothers and Parent-Teacher Associations have been in session, giving their attention to the welfare of the child in the home, the church, the school, and the state.

Congress will be asked to adopt an anti-polygamy amendment to the Constitution and to enact such legislation as will bring about uniform marriage and divorce laws in the nation. Legislative attention also is urged to certain aspects of the protection of the copyright is given.

A commission to pass on the wording of compositions is advocated with one woman as a member of the board of censors.

Modesty in dress is sought in all school girls, with the hope that practices of youth will be carried out in mature life and America will again be a country of simple and modest dressing.

Other resolutions adopted by the congress provide for a readjustment of school curriculum toward meeting the individual needs of the child and the special education of exceptional and subnormal children. The work of home and corn clubs, the Bureau of Education's recommendation for kindergartens in all cities, health supervision in country schools and the psychological examination of all children were favored in resolutions.

Featuring the closing program of the congress was the eloquent defense of the boy by Judge John M. Patterson, of Philadelphia.

Judge Patterson referred to the causes which lead the young into the juvenile court and the saving influences which rescue them. He spoke of saving the young are afflicted with, and said that at one time in the Philadelphia administration of juvenile justice it was so popular to remove the adolescents that enthusiasts insisted upon removing them from every boy who came into court, whether he had any or not. Another sad was the insistence that every boy who got into court was a mental defective, though, said the judge, many of them had done no more than I had when I was a youngster—and I consider myself normal.

Judge Patterson's conclusions were, however, that the juvenile court has come down to sane and practical methods.

Virginia Polytechnic Institute graduates and former students have formed a Washington chapter of the Virginia Polytechnic Institute Alumni Association. The following officers have been elected: J. R. Eoff, president; F. W. Smithers, vice president; R. R. Henley, secretary-treasurer.

CAN ALMOST HEAR KANGAROOSTER CRY

"Greatest Show on Earth" Is Due Here Sunday With Glittering, Glorious—Etc.

Hush! The circus is almost near enough to town to permit boys and girls and other older "greatest show on earth" fans to hear the roaring of the lions. The great tents of the show will be raised in Washington by Sunday at the latest, and on Monday and Tuesday the beautiful horses, elephants and other animals, the clowns, acrobats and all the other actors of the modern circus will delight thousands of the city's juveniles and adults with stunts both inside and outside the canvas.

The heralds of the "Greatest Show on Earth" as Barnum Bailey's Circus is called by its advance agents, declare that many European novelties, never seen before in or near Washington, will be on the program this year. These novelties the advance agents describe as "sensational and thrilling, far more sensational and much more thrilling than anything ever seen hereabouts in the past."

A new edition of "The Wizard Prince of Arabia" will serve to open the performance. Many new equestrian features have been added, say the heralds. The clowns have been working overtime in creating new pantomime stunts, and the animal trainers have, during the winter months at Bridgeport, developed several interesting and amusing animal acts. Altogether, the program promises a performance of rare attractiveness.

Excise Board Refuses Liquor License Transfer

The Excise Board has refused the application of P. J. Lynagh for a transfer of liquor license from 1209 Third street southwest to 226 M street southwest. Protest against the granting of the application was made by Gen. George M. Sternberg, Mr. Archibald Hopkins, and Mrs. Ernest P. Bicknell, representing the Sanitary Housing Company.

Transfer of a liquor license was granted Leopold Birlik from P. J. Lynagh, 1253 H street northeast, the license to be relocated at 1245 H street northeast.

To Put On Flesh And Increase Weight

A Physician's Advice

Most thin people eat from four to six pounds of good solid fat-making food every day and still do not increase in weight one ounce, while on the other hand many of the plump, chunky folks eat very lightly and keep gaining all the time. It's all bosh to say that this is the nature of the individual. It isn't Nature's way at all.

Thin folks stay thin because their powers of assimilation are defective. They absorb just enough of the food they eat to maintain life and a semblance of health and strength. Stuffing won't help them. A dozen meals a day won't make them gain a single "stay there" pound. All the fat-producing elements of their food stay in the intestines until they pass from the body as waste. What such people need is something that will prepare these fatty food elements so that their blood can absorb them and deposit them all about the body—something, too, that will multiply their red blood corpuscles and increase their blood's carrying power.

For such a condition I always recommend eating a Sargol tablet with every meal. Sargol is not, as some believe, a patented drug, but is a scientific combination of six of the best effective and powerful flesh-building elements known to chemistry. It is absolutely harmless, yet wonderfully effective and a single tablet eaten with each meal often has the effect of increasing the weight of a thin man or woman from three to five pounds a week. Sargol is sold by Jas. O'Donnell Drug Store, and other good druggists everywhere on a positive guarantee of weight increase or money back.—Advt.
